A Message From President Bob

Editor's Message:

At our last board meeting Claude brought up the subject that hardly any of us pass information onto him about activities going on in the club. We do pass information on about club activities at our meetings, however, not all members attend the meetings. We understand that everyone cannot be at all the meetings, so the newsletter is there for you.

Remember that Claude publishes a newsletter for our club and he is willing to publish any information you give him. In fact, he is eager to hear from you. I am encouraging committees and all Lions to pass along information to Claude about Club activities. If your committee has come up with a plan of action or are working on an upcoming activity, pass it along for publication. This helps keep the communication lines open and everyone will be able to keep up with the latest news and activities. Even if you attend all the meetings, it is easy to forget what is happening if you don't have your calendar with you. If you see it in print, it helps you remember and make a note of it.

The newsletter is a wonderful way to share information, so contact Claude and he will make sure it's published. Let's hear those LIONS ROAR!

It's that time of year. Time to sell "See's Candy". Here is the flyer. If you did not get one at our last meeting then this is for you. Copy it and let's start selling. This is one of our main projects for our charity account, so let's not let our club down. Prices are cheaper than your friends and family can get at the store. For more information please contact Lion Dee Dee. Sell now and receive your product before December 15th.

Words for the Wise

Marriage changes passion. Suddenly you're in bed with a relative.

I don't approve of political jokes. I've seen too many of them get elected.

I am a nobody, and nobody is perfect; therefore, I am perfect.

How come we choose from just two people to run for president and 50 for Miss America?

Isn't having a smoking section in a restaurant like having a peeing section in a swimming pool?

A good friend will come and bail you out of jail...but, a true friend will be sitting next to you saying, "Damn..that was fun!"

By the time John pulled into the little town, every hotel room was taken. "You've got to have a room somewhere," he pleaded to the last hotel manager, "Or just a bed--I don't really care where. I'm completely exhausted"

"Well, I do have a double room with one occupant," admitted the manager, "and I'm sure he would be glad to split the cost. But to tell you the truth, he snores so loudly that people in adjoining rooms have complained all week. I'm not sure it'd be worth it to you."

"No problem," the tired traveler assured him. "I'll take it."

The next morning John came down to breakfast bright-eyed and bushy-tailed. The manager asked him how he survived.

"Never better." John said.

The manager was impressed. "No problem with the other guy snoring, then?"

"Nope. I shut him up in no time."

"How'd you manage that?"

"He was already in bed, snoring away. when I came in the room," John said. "I went over, gave him a kiss on the cheek, said, 'Good night, beautiful' and he sat up all night watching me."

YOU GOTTA HAVE "BLONDE JOKES"

An airline captain was breaking in a very pretty new blonde stewardess. The route they were flying had a stay-over in another city. Upon their arrival the captain showed the stewardess the best place for airline personnel to eat, shop and stay overnight.

The next morning as the pilot was preparing the crew for the day's route, he noticed the new stewardess was missing. He knew which room she was in at the hotel and called her up wondering what happened to her.

She answered the phone, crying, and said she couldn't get out of her room.

"You can't get out of your room?" the captain asked, "Why not?"

The stewardess replied, "There are only three doors in here," she sobbed, "one is the bathroom, one is the closet, and one has a sign on it that says 'Do Not Disturb!'"
